

"Small Point" Alone Stands in Way of Naval Settlement

Decision on Question Appears Imminent After Meeting of "Big Three"

New Pact Signed

U. S. Reservation Provides Domestic Matters Shall Not Be Included in Treaty

(By The Associated Press.)

Washington, Dec. 13.—Japan has indicated continued acceptance of the American 5-5-3 naval ratio and a naval settlement of the question appears imminent.

After another meeting of the naval "Big Three" today, it was said that "one very small point" alone remained to be determined.

The Japanese exception to the American plan is understood to center about her desire to retain her new battleship Mutsu and scrap instead a vessel of older type. If she is permitted to do so, it is indicated that the United States and Great Britain will insist on similar concessions for themselves, always in the ratio of 5-5-3.

While the naval problem was entering what appeared to be its decisive stage, another of the big projects of the arms conference was brought to consummation. The new four-power treaty to preserve peace in the Pacific was formally signed and signed by the plenipotentiaries of the United States, Great Britain, Japan and France.

The quadruple agreement as finally approved, however, has attached to it a "reservation" proposed by the American delegates and accepted by the other powers. It provides that no purely domestic question shall fall within the scope of the treaty and that the treaty shall not be construed as a modification of the American policy toward Pacific mandates, a subject to be dealt with in a separate treaty, now pending completion, between the United States and Japan.

Meanwhile, indications developed that in the changing negotiations things were not going so smoothly. Both the Japanese and Chinese came out of a conference late today showing signs of somewhat dampened hopes.

By delegates outside the Japanese and Chinese group, these difficulties were looked upon as entirely temporary and in no way likely to prevent the conclusion of the conference by the end of the year.

Vivian Leaves for Home.
Another indication that the general trend of the conference is satisfactory to the leaders was given by the departure for France of Rene Viviani, head of the French delegation. The date of his departure had been fixed for some time, but it was said to be contingent on a situation which would permit him to leave without detriment to the work of the conference.

Humblings of opposition to the four-power treaty continued today in the senate to which the agreement must be submitted by President Harding for ratification. Senator La Follette, Republican of Wisconsin, declared in a public statement that the new arrangement had all the faults of the league of nations with none of its virtues, and a number of Democratic senators indicated they preferred to pursue a policy of silence until the Republicans had "interpreted the treaty to the senate."

It now appears likely that there will be four or more treaties to send to the senate when the conference is over, and some of the Democratic leaders want to see all of them before they decide on a course of action.

President Harding also hopes that some part of an agreement will be reached before the conference adjourns, for future meetings to talk over international problems. It is proposed to make such an agreement into treaty form, but it may be communicated to the senate as part of the general accomplishments of the conference.

Dairymen's League Will Terminate Sales Agency

Jersey City, Dec. 13.—Stockholders of the Dairymen's League, Inc., voted at their annual meeting today to terminate the sales agency of the league on April 1. A resolution authorizing the directors to notify members of the change was passed over the opposition of dairymen who are not members of the Dairymen's League Cooperative Association and do not engage in the pooling of their proceeds of the sales of milk.

A new board of directors was elected. The Dairymen's league has about 99,000 members, of whom 75 or 80 per cent produce and market milk. Approximately 60,555 of the league's members who are actual producers are members of the cooperative association.

The delegates present at the gathering claimed to represent more than 100,000 dairymen, farmers and distributors in New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Connecticut, Vermont and Massachusetts.

Another resolution adopted requested favorable action by congress on the Voight milk bill prohibiting the movement in interstate commerce of compound or adulterated milk, and vegetable oil or compounds made in the manufacture of milk. Addition of state laws similar to the Voight bill also was urged.

Officers for 1922 will be elected at a meeting of the directors tomorrow in New York.

CONFESSES SHE KILLED DOCTOR

Wife of Brooklyn Toy Manufacturer Says Dr. Glickstein Had Misused Her

INSANITY IS DEFENSE

Woman Asserts She Had Been "Under Influence" of Physician Several Years

New York, Dec. 13.—Mrs. Lilian Raizen, wife of a Brooklyn toy manufacturer, confessed tonight, District Attorney Lewis of Brooklyn said, that she killed Dr. Abraham Glickstein at his office on Bedford avenue, Brooklyn, Saturday evening, because he attempted to assault her on the eve of her wedding last May.

Because of the woman's highly nervous condition, the district attorney questioned her only briefly and held her without bail for further examination tomorrow.

Mrs. Raizen, who is 29 years old, told the district attorney that she had known Dr. Glickstein for about five years and that she had been "under his influence" most of the time. About a year ago, she said, she succeeded in breaking the relationship. While buying her trousseau last spring, Mrs. Raizen said, Dr. Glickstein telephoned her and asked her to come to his office. Believing that his only intention was to apologize for his past conduct, she said she called. The doctor, she said, told the district attorney, made an improper proposal and then tried to attack her but she resisted him and left his house in great mental distress. A few days later, Mrs. Raizen was married. While on her honeymoon, she said, she told her husband of the treatment she had suffered from the physician. Her husband forgave her, she added, and urged her to banish the past from her mind. She declared, however, that the experience in Dr. Glickstein's office "went to her head" and for three months she was under the care of a physician, who recommended a change of climate for her nervous condition. She went to Daytona, Fla., and later to Jacksonville, where she bought the weapon with which Dr. Glickstein was killed.

Retains Secretly to City.
Mrs. Raizen said she returned to New York secretly Friday night without the knowledge of her father, Jacob Schaffer, a Brooklyn tire manufacturer, or any of her friends, and engaged a room in a New York hotel. She brooded constantly, she said, and finally on Saturday afternoon started for Dr. Glickstein's home in Brooklyn.

After the shooting, Mrs. Raizen said she left the house in a daze and walked the streets. She returned to Manhattan and met friends, then she telephoned her father in Brooklyn what she had done.

Mrs. Raizen did not see her father or her husband until Sunday, when attorneys were called into consultation and they advised immediate surrender to the district attorney.

Avron Levy, one of the attorneys engaged to defend Mrs. Raizen, declared that she was mentally unbalanced, indicating that the defense would be based on insanity. In talking with her, he said she had remarked that she did not want to live as her life and happiness had been ruined, and while in Florida she felt her mind giving away. She told him, he said, that she thought possessed her that she must destroy the doctor and end her life.

Mrs. Glickstein, widow of the slain physician, expressed surprise when informed of Mrs. Raizen's confession. "I can hardly believe even now," she said, "that she is the woman who killed my husband."

Harry M. Wong, son-in-law of Mrs. Glickstein, declared that Mrs. Raizen's name was one of several furnished to the police by the physician's family after the murder, although no one suspected her at the time.

Police declared, however, that they were on Mrs. Raizen's trail and that an arrest was imminent when she gave herself up. The weapon with which she shot the doctor was found under the bookcase in the doctor's office. It was manufactured by the Smith & Wesson revolver factory in Springfield, Mass., and through that firm traced to S. B. Hubbard, a hardware dealer in Jacksonville, Fla.

Hardware Man Describes Woman.

Mr. Hubbard wired that the weapon was purchased by a man giving the name of "T. G. Ellis," who was accompanied by a woman. The description he furnished of this woman answered that of Mrs. Raizen. Mrs. Raizen declared that she met Mr. Ellis on the train going down to Florida and told him when she bought the revolver, which she intended to use to kill herself, her counsel said.

She wrote of her intention to commit suicide to her doctor. He turned her letter over to her husband, who received it on the same day that Dr. Glickstein was killed.

Mrs. Glickstein, when seen a second time by newspaper men, declared: "I suppose you men are glad that this woman has been arrested, but I have been growing weaker every moment since I have been told of her arrest. On I don't want to hang her. She is a mother's child and I don't want to hurt my mother's child. Do I want to see her suffer? Yes, I would like to see a dark cloud over her head, for maybe she would want to kill another man. But I have no feeling of vengeance in my heart."

The physician's widow then became hysterical, shouting: "Little, why did you take my husband's life?"

Later, Mrs. Glickstein said that she had known Mrs. Raizen for several years, and that the doctor had

7,000 MINERS QUIT WORK IN THE WYOMING REGION

Wilkes Barre, Pa., Dec. 13.—Charging that the Lehigh Valley Coal company had broken faith with its employees, members of the United Mine Workers walked out today in eight of the 13 collieries of the company in the Wyoming region. The collieries affected employ approximately 7,000 men and boys and have a total output of 8,700 tons of coal a day.

Workmen in five collieries refused to join the walkout, which was opposed by union officials. The strike was due to an alleged grievance over the pay of 17 men who refused to wait until December 15 so that coal bills could be examined and a decision rendered, according to officials of the company.

UNDERMYER GIVES DETAILS OF UNION DESPOTISM IN N. Y.

Contractors Were Compelled to Pay Plasterers' Union Fines From $100 Up For Working Men Overtime, He Charges

(By The Associated Press.)

New York, Dec. 13.—Alleged despotism by the plasterers' union and abuse of power enabling it to "string up" the entire building industry of New York by the neck, was attacked before the Lockwood legislative committee today by Samuel Undermyer, its counsel.

Reading from the minutes of the union's executive committee and examining the recording secretary, Mr. Undermyer brought out the following practices:

Contractors were compelled to pay the union fines from $100 up for working the men overtime without permission of the executive committee.

Jewish, German and Italian members of the union were fined $15 each for working on St. Patrick's Day. A plasterer was degraded from his place of employment for one year because he "worked with tools" during the lunch hour.

Another, charged with the same offense, was let off with a reprimand, as he "made amends by quitting at 4:30 o'clock."

If contractors did not distribute all wages on pay day by 5 o'clock they had to pay two hours' overtime for each man who waited longer. Whether the delay was one minute or two hours, the full overtime penalty had to be paid.

Workers Mustn't Be Rushed.
When a bad piece of work by a plasterer is ordered torn down, "either the owner or the contractor" of the building is penalized, he was testified by Michael E. Gallagher, recording secretary of the union. It is against the rules of the union, he said, for an employer to lay off during dull periods his shop steward, "who looks after the interests of the union," and one contractor who did so was fined.

The minutes recorded demolition of a foreman because he "stood over the workers and rushed them." Mr. Gallagher characterized this as "slave driving" and said rushing was a 40 per cent worse crime than neglecting the workers. Undermyer charged the plasterers were blackbacking the public in doing this and also the contractors.

"If you tell a contractor he has to pay $100 or $1,000 or he does not get union men, that puts him out of business, unless he pays what you tell him to pay, doesn't it?" asked Mr. Undermyer.

"Automatically yes," the witness replied. "The committee was then informed of the removal of artificial stone which had been placed in an apartment under construction in Park avenue's fashionable quarter. The work met with the approval of the owner, the contractor and the city building department but not the union. Mr. Gallagher said:

"If there ever was reason for regulating these unions to be incorporated under their activities confined within legal limits," Mr. Undermyer said, "these instances, of which there are so many, would seem to demonstrate it."

BOARD SETS UP TEN-HOUR DAY

Maintenance of Way Employees Receive Overtime Only After Ten Hours' Work

R. R. SAVED MILLIONS

New Rules Normally Would Affect 858,000 Men; Sunday Work at Same Daily Wage

(By The Associated Press.)

Chicago, Dec. 13.—Shining extra pay provisions for the first two hours of overtime after the regular eight-hour day's work from rules governing railway maintenance of way employees, the United States Railroad Labor board sets up a schedule of ten hours a day as the regular hourly wage for common laborers in new rules announced tonight to replace the national agreement made under government control.

The principle of "eight consecutive hours shall constitute a day's work," is retained, however, and time and one-half pay is granted after ten hours' work.

The new provisions make possible a ten-hour day without penalizing the railroads, which were compelled under the federal agreement to pay time and one-half after eight hours.

Practically all section gangs work more than eight hours a day, due to time necessary for traveling to and from the point of operations and because the seasonal nature of the work makes long hours necessary to take advantage of good weather.

Wage Schedules Unchanged.
Many rules had been agreed upon by a majority of roads and in such cases the federal counterparts were remanded for further consideration to roads not reaching an agreement. These included rules on seniority, promotion and special service where local conditions were held to govern. Wage schedules were eliminated as a part of the rules agreement.

Removal of the two hours' overtime penalty was declared by labor board attaches to cut many millions of dollars from the carriers' annual payrolls. Normally, the new law would effect $58,000 men, but at present the force is considerably less, due to sub-normal traffic conditions and also to the seasonal nature of the work.

Criticism From Farmers.
The old national agreement recognized the ten-hour day in extra or overtime work of workmen whose employment is temporary and seasonal. Regular gangs, however, were paid overtime after eight hours, causing much criticism, especially from agricultural sections where farmers declared the shorter hours and higher pay on the railroads made it difficult for them to get labor.

Under the new rules, numerous changes are made. The number of hours per day may be reduced by mutual agreement to avoid reducing forces. The roads were formerly compelled to pay eight hours' wages a day for each man employed. Regular assignments of Sunday and holiday work no longer draw time and a half pay.

All arbitrary rules fixing the beginning and ending of the regular work day are eliminated, these hours to be fixed by agreement between local officials and the men, based on the service requirements of that section of the country.

The board has now completed consideration of rules covering approximately one million railroad employees, about half the number employed on the railroads of the country.

Few Predictions As To Dail Eireann's Attitude on Treaty

Imperial Parliament Also Meets Today to Consider Agreement Recently Signed

Faces Big Task

Misgivings as to Griffith's Ability to Win Enough Votes to Secure Approval

(By The Associated Press.)

Dublin, Dec. 13.—Great interest and some anxiety prevails in Dublin, in fact throughout the whole of Ireland, tonight concerning tomorrow's meeting of the Dail Eireann, which is to decide whether there shall be peace with Great Britain.

It is considered possible that there may be no direct vote in the parliament on the question of acceptance or rejection of the treaty arranged in London—that it may be referred to a plebiscite to decide whether the agreement which Arthur Griffith and the other Sinn Fein plenipotentiaries made with the British government shall be accepted.

The question rests with the Dail Eireann, which was elected on a Republican mandate. While a majority of the people of Southern Ireland are declared to be desirous of peace, there were few tonight who would venture a guess on the final result. This probably will not be arrived at until Thursday evening.

There will be 120 members of the Dail Eireann present at the session tomorrow in the mansion house. Among these will be Mr. Griffith, who will move the adoption of the agreement and who can safely count on 40 votes in the affirmative; Eamon DeValera, who is opposing his old comrade, is also said to have 40 members behind him. How the remaining 40 members will vote nobody but themselves knows. Many of these members of the parliament have not yet arrived in Dublin and have not hitherto expressed an opinion.

Women Remember Sufferings.
The women members generally have been counted as being among the "die hards," but it is reported that some of them who suffered most during the disturbances have decided to forget the past and vote with Mr. Griffith and his followers. Among those credited with having such intentions are Dr. Ada English and Mrs. Pearce, whose two sons were executed in 1916, and even the Countess Georgina Markievicz, who has been imprisoned more times than most men.

Even though Mr. Griffith has been in Ireland through all of the country's recent troubles and is declared to be in close touch with the Irish people, it is considered that he faces a hard battle.

In Dublin Castle, among the officials who have worked hard for the peace which seems so near at hand, there are certain misgivings. The opinion was expressed by a high official at the castle today that Mr. DeValera probably will, when replying to Mr. Griffith's proposal for acceptance of the treaty, take the stand that the members of the Dail Eireann were elected on a Republican platform and have no right to deviate from that mandate. The possibility was advanced that if no agreement could be reached a plebiscite would be suggested.

Bishops Take No Action.

Presided over by Cardinal Logue, the bishops of all the Irish dioceses met today in University College to consider what attitude they should adopt towards the Anglo-Irish agreement.

Preliminary conversations among the prelates disclosed that there was a strong party opposed to Cardinal Logue's view that they should make a for the purpose of considering the treaty between Great Britain and Ireland.

TARIFF FRAMERS HAVE BUSY DAY

Discuss Everything From Canary Birds to Cows; Liquor Interests Active

Washington, Dec. 13.—Tariff framers on the senate finance committee had a course in mental gymnastics today in following the combination of subjects presented by a dozen or more witnesses. The discussion ranged all the way from canary birds to cows and from near beer to champagne, with canaries, sugar, and tomatoes, paste and other items thrown in.

The specific schedules under consideration were those dealing with agricultural products and provisions, and spirits, wines and other beverages. Liquor importers, through Levi Cooke of this city, protested against the proposed rates of $5 a gallon on brandy and $6 a gallon on champagne, pointing out that these were in addition to the internal revenue tax of $2.20 a gallon.

Speaking for the Anheuser-Busch company, Mr. Cooke asked that present rates on imported hops be retained, declaring these hops had to be used in combination with the American product in the manufacture of near beer to get the desired flavor and that any curtailment in their use would necessarily curtail the use of the home-grown product.

HELP ON LOTTERY CHANGE.

Albany, Dec. 13.—John J. Pappala, a former professional baseball player, arrested last October by federal agents in connection with a lottery, was held for the federal grand jury under $5,000 bonds by United States Commissioner O'Neill late today. Pappala's arrest took place at an express office where it was alleged he had just received for a package containing lottery tickets.

FOUR MINERS ENTOMBED.

Morrison, Colo., Dec. 13.—One miner is known to have lost his life and four others still are entombed in the Salsburg mine of the Colorado Collieries company, where they were overcome by fire damp this afternoon. Other miners in the property when the explosion occurred escaped or were rescued.

MATHEWS FINED FOR CRUELTY

S. R. Matthews, residing on Upper West Street, Finally Pleads Guilty and is Fined $20—Mrs. Hyde Called by Chief Horton to Investigate the Case.

Frequent complaints having been made to police and other officials relative to the manner in which S. R. Matthews of Upper West street cares for his horses, Chief F. N. Horton requested Mrs. Hyde of Cooperstown to visit the farm and make an inspection. This was done recently, Chief Horton accompanying her. They found the horse in the stable lying upon the floor and investigation revealed that it had been unable to rise for at least four days. The animal was shot.

Investigation disclosed that a mule was being used on the place drawing manure which was so lame that it could barely step on one leg. Dr. Brand the veterinary was called to examine the animal and he pronounced it unfit for use. This animal was shot by the officer of the society. Another horse was found on the place that was suffering from sweeny.

Mrs. Hyde and Chief Horton returned to this city and with Attorney Lincoln L. Kellogg acting for the society a warrant was sworn out for the arrest of Matthews on the charge of cruelty to animals in driving the horse that was unfit to use and he was taken into custody and arraigned before City Judge Huntington. He plead not guilty and demanded a jury trial. The trial was set down for Dec. 14th. On Monday evening, acting on the advice of his attorney, Matthews appeared before Judge Huntington and changed his plea to guilty. He was fined $20. Attorney Kellogg asked the court to impose a larger fine, alleging that the offense was willful. The fine was paid.

Matthews is understood to have asserted that he could not secure a veterinary to care for his horses. The assertion is made that the veterinarians have declared that they could do little for his horses as Matthews would not follow their suggestions nor feed and care for them properly. It is believed that hereafter he will be more careful as the agent of the society is inclined to watch the manner in which he cares for his animals in the future.

SPECULATIVE ISSUES ACTIVE AND STRONG

Financial Markets Experience Radical Change From Recent Anomalous Conditions

New York, Dec. 13.—Financial markets today experienced a radical change from recent anomalous conditions. Foreign exchanges were dull and decidedly lower, but stocks of a speculative character were active and strong.

Reactions in foreign currencies, which ranged from almost ten cents in sterling to ten to 25 points in Allied or continental remittances, were regarded as a natural sequence of the recent phenomenal advance.

Resumption of bullish operations in the share list focused around oils and metals, with a liberal sprinkling of steel, equipment, chemicals and related issues. Outstanding features embraced Mexican and Pan American petroleum, Houston, Federal Mining and Smelting common and preferred, and the cheaper coppers, at extreme sales of one to six points.

Shorts were severely punished by the movement in oils, which gained additional impetus from reports that the Mexican government had decided not to enforce the higher export tax on these products.

All of the day's call loans were made at the fixed rate of five percent, large sums being available at that figure. Time money held at the same quotation, but some 90-day offerings were taken at 5 1/2 percent.

Signing of the four-power treaty created a demand for foreign bonds. Chinese government 5's and Italian 6 1/2's were among the strongest of that group. Liberty bonds were steady, but rails showed mixed gains and losses.

WEST LAURENS GRANGE.
Elects Officers for Ensuing Year at Meeting Last Saturday.
 West Laurens, Dec. 13.—At the meeting of the West Laurens grange held Saturday evening, the following officers for the coming year were duly elected: Master, Miss Lula Lull; overseer, Robert Cook; lecturer, Miss Florence Hayward; steward, Eugene Cerosaletti; assistant steward, Claude Sheldon; chaplain, Mrs. Minnie Cornell; treasurer, T. A. Greene; secretary, Miss Gladys Lull; gatekeeper, Mrs. Cornelia Ceres; Miss Edna Johnson; Pomona, Miss Edna Cook; Flora, Miss Assunta Cerosaletti; lady assistant, Mrs. Mary Hillinger; pianist, Mrs. Olga Wing.

Telephone Co. Holds Meeting.
 The stockholders of the West Laurens Telephone company are requested to meet at the Grange hall Saturday, December 17, at 1:30 p. m. for the purpose of electing officers and any other business which may properly come before the meeting. The officers have ably aided in the past year, so give them support by a large attendance. Let each one be present.

Finds Valuable Diamond.
 Last July a Mr. Tracy of Utica stopped at the wayside watering trough in front of Jay Smith's farm home on the Oneonta-Morris state road for a drink and also to wash his hands. Before leaving he discovered that a $550 diamond set in a ring was missing. He searched every available nook and crevice but to no avail. Recently, after the heavy rains, Mrs. Mary Cook, a lady of 77 years but evidently of very clear vision, saw something sparkle by the trough. Upon examination it proved to be the lost gem. The diamond was returned to its owner and Mrs. Cook liberally rewarded.

A New Way to Serve Cranberries

Jellied Cranberries; or Cranberry Sauce "DeLuxe"

How to Make It At Home in Ten Minutes

Everybody likes cranberry sauce or jam, particularly with Turkey for Holiday Dinners. This year, thanks to the remarkable CERTO Process, you can make it better, quicker and cheaper than ever before. In fact, thousands of housewives who never before thought of preserving cranberries are now putting up dozens of glasses of jellied cranberries so they can serve it throughout the year. Nearly everybody says that cranberries prepared in this new way not only look better and taste better, but actually are better, because none of the color and flavor are boiled away. This is the way to do it; and it takes only about ten minutes.

To make 5 lbs. Jellied Cranberries take:

- 1 1/2 lbs. Ripe Cranberries
- 2 cups of Water
- 2 level cups (2 1/2 lbs.) Sugar
- 1 bottle of CERTO

Pinch or crush each berry with the fingers so that they "pop" or open up. If too hard or green to open in this manner slit part way with knife. Use Rathbun: Superintendent of Juniors, Mrs. C. W. Mercer; Organist, Miss Maylene Mercer.

Real Estate Transfer.
 Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lidell of Ilion, formerly of this place, have taken possession of the John Lidell farm which they recently contracted to buy. We understand he will stock the farm in the spring and during the summer will sell milk, ice, etc., to the campers.

Y. P. S. C. E. Meeting.
 The topic for the meeting of the Y. P. S. C. E. for Sunday evening is "Conscience: Teaching It, Quickening It, Obeying It." Leader, Oscar Angel.

Aid Society.
 The Ladies' Aid society of the Universalist church will hold their monthly meeting with Mrs. Willard Stanton, Thursday, from 2 until 5 o'clock.

"Coon Hunters Lucky."
 On Saturday, John K. Allen and Everett Hotelling went coon hunting and they had fine luck to bag four very fine ones. It seems that coons are very plentiful in this locality.

Personals.
 Mrs. Myron Wakerly and Mrs. Frances Wakerly attended the funeral of the latter's niece, Mrs. Lavorn Gile, at Oneonta, Sunday.—Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Jones, Misses Marie Miller and Marjorie Mercer were business callers in Utica Saturday.—Horace Beadle and daughter, Mable, spent Sunday with his brother, Charles Beadle, at Richfield.—Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Allen and son returned to their home in Frankfort Sunday.—Mrs. Fred Roberts entertained several lady friends from Utica for the weekend.—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hulburt of Richfield Springs spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. R. ### The Supreme Gift

Selecting the usual Christmas gifts—watches, books, pictures, jewelry—will not trouble you. It is the one distinctive gift—that will make this year's total giving different from last year's and those of previous years—that's the task which puzzles you.

Here is a suggestion. Adapt it and the matter will be settled—settled richly and satisfactorily—and your Christmas shopping will have been made easy.

The usual gifts are seldom durable, a few weeks or a few months and their usefulness or their value is gone. Nevertheless we must continue to give them—Christmas wouldn't be Christmas without them. The thing to do is to add the supreme gift!

And you would not be alone in doing it. Thousands and thousands of husbands and fathers in recent years have given this supreme gift. It has become a Christmas Custom, rapidly growing in observance as the years go by.

This describes it:—A document, handed to the wife on Christmas Day, under which she would receive a check for a stated amount each month of her life if you should be taken away. Christmas Day at home, guaranteed to her and your children as long as she lives—sure shelter for her and theirs—with the Christmas table and gifts—sure education for the children; freedom from burden and care; all provided by the husband and father, just as he is doing it now; the supreme gift of this year's Christmas Day! It would make her happy, would it not?—would be one more indisputable proof of your loving care for her? And what peace of mind you would have in knowing that her future was assured—that every month regularly—month after month—no one could take away—would come to her down to the latest month of the last year of her life.

This is the supreme gift. Can you find a better one to give distinction to this year's list of presents? Decide now and it will not take long to put the contract into your hands. "Do Your Christmas Shopping Early"—as it will be done with and done well!

HELPING THE UNEMPLOYED.

Of the $25,000,000 appropriated for federal aid in highway construction provided in the act of November 9 last, $24,375,000 is now available and $18,750,000 will be available on January 1, next, according to figures furnished by Col. Arthur Wood, of the President's Conference on Unemployment. These amounts are in addition to the $45,500,000 unexpended balance from former acts giving federal aid in highway construction, a total of $14,625,000. It is expected that the various states will match these funds to the extent of at least $125,000,000, making the total federal aid road work for 1922 more than $250,000,- 000.

The Bureau of Public Roads has figures showing that other state and county road construction, in which the federal government will not participate, will bring the grand total to approximately $650,000,000 for 1922.
This does not include street construction in cities.

Secretary Hoover of the Department of Commerce has urged the governors of the various states to let as many contracts as possible for highway. His purpose is not to suggest that states enter on road building in winter weather, but he points out that if contracts are let now, the money will be available when the ground has frozen, and the work can be done more cheaply.

Winter work will result from these orders, and to that extent unemployment will be relieved.
"This country," says Col. Woods,
"has sufficient width in latitude to make out-door work possible in some part of it all the year around, and there never was a time when this advantage could be used to more benefit to the people of the United States than right now."

NEW YORK ADDRESS WANTED

Of Former Oneontans Now Residing in New York City and Vicinity.

It is the desire of the Klippanochie Boys to invite to the annual dinner of that organization, to be held at Hotel McAplins in New York January 14, all former Oneontans now residing in New York and vicinity. While the organization has made every effort to get in touch with all such, it is known that there are numerous former residents of this city who are now in New York whose address it has been impossible to secure.

Star readers are requested by the officers of the club to forward the name and address of any and all former residents of Oneonta who have removed to the metropolis. This is especially requested of those who are comparatively newcomers to New York.

Communications giving the names and addresses of those who have recently removed to New York city may be addressed to C. Clarence Swift, the president, at 225 Broadway, or to the secretary, Henry E. Tobey, Woolworth building, New York city. Residents of Oneonta who are hoping to attend should also make ticket reservations with one of the officers named in order that table reservations may be made.

VAN DYKE'S LAST WORD.

To Be Given by Normal Students Before Oneonta Chapter, D. A. R.

At the next meeting of the Oneonta chapter, Daughters American Revolution, to be held at the Woman's club rooms on Wednesday afternoon, Dec.
21, Van Dyke's Last Word will be given by Normal students under the direction of Dr. Charles A. Schumacher, of the faculty of that institution.
The members will gather at 2:45 o'clock and after a social hour tea will be served by the hostesses of the afternoon, Mrs. George E. Baird, Mrs. William Apthorpe and Mrs.
Merton L. Ford. The Last Word will be given at 4 o'clock. The music for the afternoon will be supervised by Miss Esther Green. The ladies are anticipating a record attendance at this meeting.

The Paralysis Clinic.

There were twenty-four patients present at the infantile paralysis clinic held yesterday by the state authorities at the Fox Memorial hospital. The clinic was conducted by Dr. Hubbard, of the State Health department, assisted by Miss Carrie Eaton, county tuberculosis nurse; Miss Robertson, Red Cross nurse; Miss Knapp, city nurse; and Misses Kenney and Nash, district nurses. For the state health board. Through most of the cases were from the epidemic of a few years ago, there were four new cases, one from Otsego county, two from Delaware and one from Scholarie. Dr. Hubbard states that the clinic showed favorable progress in practically every case, with several of them practically recovered. In addition to the infantile paralysis cases there were two or three other orthopedic cases or other sorts in which examination and advice were given.

Missionary Society Meets.

There was a large attendance at the meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary society of the First Methodist church held in the church parlors yesterday afternoon. Mrs. C. Harp, who had charge of the devotionals,
read the Christmas story and commented upon the loyalty to country of Mary, the mother of Christ, adding the thought that the woman of today has among her first duties the making of the world a good place to live in for the children she has trained.
The program was in charge of Mrs.
Arthur Ingerham, who presented pictures of pioneer work in the far west and of the Deaconess homes supported by the Home Missionary society.
Supper was served to 150 members at the close of the program.

LEGIONNAIRES MEET

Important Matters Discussed at American Legion Meeting Last Evening—Committee Appointed to Assist in Compilation of History of Oneonta's War Activities—Unique Entertainment Features Meeting.

At a largely attended meeting of Oneonta post of the American legion held at K. of P. hall last evening several measures of importance to the ex-soldiers were discussed and acted upon and a special entertainment program that appealed strongly to the men was presented.

It was decided to hold the annual post banquet some time in February and a committee was appointed to arrange for the event. It is planned to secure several noted men to speak at that time, including the State Commander if it is possible to get him. A committee was also appointed to make arrangements for a fair to be held at an early date in the armory if the use of that building can be secured.
The post decided to donate $25 to the Community Chest with the request that the sum be allotted to the Red Cross. It was also voted to extend the terms of the officers elected last October to December, 1922, in order that their tenure of office may coincide with the fiscal year of the organization.

A committee was also appointed to assist in writing the history of the post Oneonta played in the Great War.
This record of the city's war time accomplishments will be a part of the state history now being prepared by Dr. James Sullivan of Albany and will include a list of the names of every man or woman in the city who served during the World War either in the American or foreign armies. The war time activities of those citizens who, while not in the military forces, yet were of service to their country will not be forgotten in the compilation. It is planned to secure the information required by sending out a questionnaire to every known ex-soldier who lived in Oneonta at the outbreak of the war.

An interesting feature of the meeting was the reading of a letter written to the post by the French lad adopted some time ago. The letter, which was written in French, was translated by Edward Elshway, and told of the boy's school accomplishments and of his kindly feeling toward his god-parents, the members of the Oneonta post.

Following the business meeting a unique entertainment was offered the members. Young Jack Dempsey and Young George Carpentier, impersonated by Walter and Bobbie Hodge, 3 and 5 years old, were presented and gave a three round boxing bout that, in interest and action, surpassed many championship contests. The lads were evenly matched and after their spirited contest the bout was declared a draw. The main feature of the entertainment was a vaudeville stunt the nature of which cannot be described. Suffice it to say that it was warmly applauded. The performer, a member of the post, appeared incognito and the lather needed for discovering his identity was awarded to Post Commander Bergan. The serving of coffee and sandwiches by the mess sergeant concluded one of the most enjoyable get-togethers ever held by the post.

Standard Bearers Welcome Christmas

The Christmas meeting of the Standard Bearer's society of the First Methodist church took place last evening at the home of Frances Pris-bee, 7 Myrtle avenue, with a fine attendance. After the business meeting, a little sketch entitled "Any Child Doing Christmas Shopping" was presented by the girls of the society and evoked much merriment.
Then, to making the evening complete, there was a Christmas tree and the exchange of gifts. All together, the girls had a happy evening.

Worcester Store Changes Hands.

J. W. Root of Stamford has purchased of Floyd G. Munzer the store conducted by him at Worcester and will take possession January 1. The store is a well-established one with a large patronage which under the new management will no doubt be retained and increased. Mr. Root has for sixteen years been connected with the Sheffield Farms company at Stamford. The sale was made through the Judd & Sherman Real Estate agency of Oneonta and Otsego.

To Discuss the Amusement Question.

Rev. E. M. VanHorne, who, assisted by Mrs. VanHorne, is conducting a series of evangelistic services at the First Methodist church, announces that the topic of his sermon for tomorrow will be "The Ecclesiastical Hook Worm, a three-act lecture on the amusement question." There will be special music. The public is invited to attend. Service begins at 7:30.

PEOPLE'S PARLIAMENT.

The Star disclaims all responsibility for the views of correspondents expressed in this column and will not be held as endorsing them because publishing them. This column is intended to be for the people's use, the place where all can be heard, whose statements are non-com-mitable. The communication must be accompanied by the name and address of the author, if requested, these will not be published, however.

"Advance" Makes Progressive Appeal To Readers.

Editor Star:
In considering the arguments advanced pro and con by the Chamber of Commerce, in submitting the proposition relative to the proposed bond issue for making provision in our parks for the children, it appears that the argument against is exaggerated. Few if any of the improvements named in the second paragraph
"against" are likely to be completed within the next two years, or for many years thereafter; and some of them, such as the sewerage disposal plant, could not be, to good advantage.
The order for such a plant was made by the state many years ago and we are slowly planning and building in compliance therewith.

There is no apparent necessity for rebuilding the Chestnut street pavement for years to come. That pavement is in excellent condition excepting only a short block a little west of the "Chinese wall." With that block repaired the whole of Chestnut street pavement is good for a long time.

How is Main street to be widened?
By narrowing the already frequently congested sidewalks or by cutting back the face of the buildings and setting the sidewalks back? As desirable as may be the proposal is practically impossible.

The immediate necessity of rebuilding the bridges named is, to say the least, doubtful. If the waters of Silver creek and Oneonta creek are restrained in flood time the demands upon those bridges to care for floods will be greatly diminished and their ability to carry passing loads seems to be sufficient.

Any city administration that attempted in two years to carry out the program named in the "against" would be "deader than a smelt" politically and would not survive to accomplish it.

Let's be reasonable and face the importance, and make provision for the welfare of the children.
Advance.

LOCAL MENTION

Children's story hour at the Huntington Memorial Library this afternoon at 4 o'clock. For children of eight years and under only.

There was a gratifying attendance at the weekly baby clinic held at the Community house yesterday afternoon. Dr. Ray Champion and Miss Robertson examined the infants.

Christmas seals for the fight against tuberculosis in Ulsego county have been placed on sale at Goldthwaite's and Reynolds' book stores, the Oneonta Press, the Oneonta hotel, and the Community house.

The attention of members of the Oneonta club is called to the holiday smoker to be held at the club house on Dietz street this evening. There will be an abundance of smokes and light refreshments will be served.

The boulevard light on Broad street opposite The Star office was put in operation this morning for the first time last evening and its glowing qualities are an indication of the improvement that will result along the entire thoroughfare when the work of installing the other five lights is completed.

Skidding motor cars with broken wheels and other damage is becoming frequent. It is much to be doubted whether motorists are warranted in jeopardizing the lives of others, even indifferent about their own, by driving on the highways without chains in the present icy condition of the roads.

CHRISTMAS KETTLES READY.

Salvation Army Appeals for Funds to Bring Holiday Cheer to the Poor.

The arrival of the holiday season has already been heralded by the increasing afternoon crowds of shoppers in the business district. The hurrying streams of men and women will have the fact brought more forcibly to their attention today when the Salvation Army places its Christmas Kettles at two of the busiest points—in front of the Oneonta hotel and the Oneonta Department store.

The money realized from the kettles will provide Christmas baskets for the needy families of the city—families who would have little of Christmas cheer if it were not for the work of the Salvation Army. The worthiness of this cause need not be impressed upon the citizens of Oneonta, who have always generously aided the work in the many years it has been carried on. Any surplus of funds this year will be used for a Christmas tree and entertainment to be given the needy children at the Salvation Army hall.

Remember the Kettles today!

HEARING AT ALBANY TODAY

SENSATIONAL CHARGES MADE RELATIVE TO TRIAL OF GEORGE BRAZEE.

Attorney James J. Byard Jr. intimates that evidence favorable to his client was revealed when body of victim was exhumed by Direction of Justice Kellogg. Many inaccuracies in published statements.

Sensational stories relative to the trial of George Brazee, now at Ossining awaiting execution for the murder of Anna VanPatten, appeared in various newspapers yesterday and created no little interest in the hearing to be given at the executive chamber at Albany at noon today by Governor Miller on the application of James J. Byard Jr. of counsel for the convicted man for executive clemency.

Many errors appear in the published statements and in fact one individual familiar with the case is said to have declared that about the only accurate statement in the articles that appeared is one to the effect that the accused man was convicted of murder in the first degree.

Mr. Byard lays great stress upon the fact that the body of the murdered woman was exhumed and examined. The articles state that this was done a month after the conviction. The fact is that during the progress of the trial Justice Kellogg, who desired to have all the facts presented to the jury, directed that the body be exhumed during the progress of the trial and the surgeons making the examination reported directly to him. It is understood that nothing was ascertained that shed any additional light upon the crime or disclosed anything inconsistent with the evidence presented by the district attorney tending to show that the crime was committed by Brazee.

The reports further state that Byard became one of the lawyers for Brazee some time after he was convicted, while the record of the court show that he was one of the attorneys for the accused throughout the trial and figured conspicuously during the trial.

It was stated in the newspapers during the story as originally given out that Attorney Byard promises to make some sensational disclosures when the exhumation of the body is made. It is believed that others will have some observations to make upon the case and upon the intimations contained in the articles, which were doubtless inspired by Attorney Byard.

Attorneys Sheldon H. Close and John C. Johnson, who were appointed by the court to defend Brazee, go to Albany this morning to attend the hearing. Neither counsel will have some observations to make upon the case, yesterday for publication, promising to await the hearing at Albany today and the disclosures that will be made.

It is expected that before the hearing is ended Governor Miller will be able to discover just how much credence should be given to this allegation of Attorney Byard that anything revealed when the body was exhumed was favorable to his client and was improperly kept from the jury.

BLENDS BUY HAT SHOP.

Mrs. Gibbs Sells Widely Known Business of Hubbards, Hatters.

Mrs. George L. Gibbs has sold the well-known millinery store at 155 Main street to Miss Edith F. Blend and Mrs. Walter Blend, both of this city and for a long time connected with the business. Possession of the store will be given, and the store will be continued under the former well-known name, that of Hubbards, Hatters.

"The business was established by the late Mrs. Mary A. Coon, and has been carried on in its present quarters for more than twenty years. About six years ago it was purchased by the more recent proprietor, and its sale at this time will result in no change in the policy of the business. Mrs. Gibbs of Hubbards, Hatters, are well acquainted with the new proprietors, and will be glad to know that they are to continue the business on former lines and in the present location.

RECRUITING DRIVE STARTS

Intensive Membership Campaign Planned by Officers of Company G—Incentive Will Be Made to Fill Ranks and Create Waiting List.

A recruiting drive designed to fill the ranks of the local national guard company, Company G, 10th Infantry, N. Y. N. G., and to create a waiting list has been started under the supervision of Lieut. Louis M. Baker and promises before its conclusion to place the company at the top of the list of national guard units in the state. Lieutenant Baker has appointed G. Stanley Martin, James Glavin, Reverend Stitt, C. H. Thompson and C. M. Grant as the company's "recruiting drive" committee and plans have been laid to make the campaign a conspicuous success.

Col. Walsh, commanding officer of the 10th Infantry, Major Donnor, commanding the battalion of which Company G is a unit, and Captain Mangione of the adjutant general's office, were in the city last week conferring with Captain Jackson and Lieutenant Baker concerning the drive. It is planned to introduce several novel features into the campaign in line with plans used in other parts of the state. These will be announced at a later date.

Captain Jackson and Lieutenant Baker feel that young men can secure no better training than that afforded by the National Guard and it is their hope so to interest the young men of the city that the company's ranks will be soon filled and a waiting list established. The city can well feel proud of both the peace time and wartime record of the company and there exists no reason why it cannot be brought up to the same standard of efficiency that made it in the past well known not only throughout the state but also throughout the nation. The present company is a worthy body of soldiers but there are several vacancies in the ranks and it is to fill these the present drive has been undertaken.

During the drive the social and athletic advantages which membership in the company gives will be emphasized, as well as the physical and mental benefits to be derived.

"THE PARISH PRIEST" TONIGHT.

To Be Presented at Oneonta Theatre by Local Talent.

This evening, at the Oneonta theatre under the direction of Al MacKay, who will take the leading part, the well known play, "The Parish Priest," will be presented, by local talent. The cast has been rehearsing for weeks and it is the belief that the company will be found capable and the production praiseworthy.

Tickets have sold in liberal numbers and in view of the fact that the play is to be given one night only it is expected that a large audience will greet the production. The play is produced for the benefit of Oneonta council, Knights of Columbus, which has voted to give a tenth of its share of the proceeds to the local Red Cross. Those holding tickets may exchange them at the box office today for reserved seats.

HURT WHILE COASTING

Paul Tipple, 12 Years Old, Sustains Compound Fracture of Leg, in Coasting Accident on Elm Street.

Paul Tipple, 12 year old son of Mrs. Edith M. Tipple of 29 Linden avenue, suffered a severe compound fracture of the right leg while coasting on Elm street at about 8:15 o'clock Monday evening. The lad is now in the Fox Memorial hospital where it was said last evening that he was resting comfortably and that no complications were expected.

Paul, with several other companions of about his own age, were enjoying the pleasures of coasting on Elm street. He had made the descent and was drawing his sled up the hill for another slide when another coaster shot down the hill and, seeing the boy too late to stop or to steer to one side, crashed into him. The accident occurred near Linden avenue and the boy was quickly taken to his home and Dr. F. H. Marx summoned. It was found that the injury was a compound fracture of the leg just above the ankle and after doing what he could to reduce the fracture, a particularly bad one with the bone protruding through the flesh, Dr. Marx advised that the lad be taken to the hospital. The fracture was reduced and the lacerations treated and it is thought that, unless unforeseen complication arise, the boy will make a good recovery.

The accident was truly an unfortunate one but the mother attaches no blame to the coaster who ran into her boy, feeling that perhaps Paul, in the excitement of the exhilarating sport, had not kept on his own side of the road.

XMAS PAGEANT TONIGHT

Young Women of Methodist Church to Depict Christmas Missionary Work.

"Lighting the Christmas Candles," a holiday pageant carrying a timely message, will be presented in the auditorium of the First Methodist church this evening, commencing at 8 o'clock by the Young Women's Foreign Missionary society.

The pageant depicts the work of missionary colleges sustained by the Methodist church in China, India and Japan and what a great service they are rendering in carrying the word of God to foreign lands. This cast is made up of ten young women of the society. As a prologue there will be a scene representing Christmas in a Christian American home as compared with Christmas in an unenlightened foreign home. The purpose of the evening's entertainment is to emphasize a theme that should have special significance at this season of the year—that "the light of the world is Jesus."

The public is cordially invited to attend the pageant. A silver offering will be taken for the benefit of Methodist missionary colleges.

PAUL DUNBAR INTERPRETED

Dean Thorne of Syracuse University reads selections from Negro Poet at High School—Strangers Alumnus Hold Dinner Rally.

An inspiring evening in readings of the poems of Paul Lawrence Dunbar, the first part of the negro poet, was furnished the audience that gathered at the High School auditorium last evening for the dramatic recital of Prof. Hugh M. Thorne, dean of the School of Oratory at Syracuse University.

Through his clear and intelligent interpretation of Dunbar's poetry, the audience was made to feel the true meaning of the poet's words. The readings were given with such skill and understanding that the audience was deeply impressed. The readings were given with such skill and understanding that the audience was deeply impressed.

Stating that Paul Lawrence Dunbar had been one of the first of American poets to use the negro dialect, the speaker said that the poet's work was a masterpiece of art and that it was a pleasure to read his poems.

Miss Leslie P. Cowan, dramatic reader of the High School introduced Dunbar as the poet who taught at Syracuse University with a fine tribute to his ability both as an eloquentist and as an instructor.

The proceeds of the recital which was held under the auspices of the High School Dramatic Club went to the Syracuse University Emergency Fund. Before the recital, the Syracuse alumnus residing in Oneonta and Otsego county held a dinner rally at the University to meet with Dean Thorne. An organization was perfected to arrange gatherings of Syracuse alumnus in the future.

Dr. Russell Addresses H-Y Club

Dr. J. O. Russell, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, addressed the H-Y club at its regular meeting held last evening at the Y. M. C. A. He gave the more than score of young men present his conception of a gentleman and the talk proved exceedingly interesting and helpful to all. Dr. Russell declared that to be a gentleman a young man should be courteous and above all a Christian. He urged the young men to set Jesus Christ as their example as he was the perfect type of manhood.

The talk was preceded by a delicious supper served by the ladies auxiliary. The H-Y club holds meetings every two weeks and is a source of much benefit to the young men who are members.

Benedict's Shoe Sale Starts!

Today is a history making day in low prices for Oneonta, and it's going to be remembered and talked about for years to come.

SHOES ALMOST HALF PRICE

This sale is in dead earnest. Its sole object is to reduce this $18,000 stock to about $9,000 between now and Christmas. That's a cash out thereabouts puts $9,000 worth of shoes on the feet of the wise ones.

EVERY OTHER SALE IS BEAT TO A FRAZZLE

It is one grand slaughter of prices at which thousands will revel in economy and satisfaction. All shoes out of boxes, on tables, shelves and racks, to make selection of styles, leathers and prices easy. Prices that astound manufacturers.

Delaware County News

A BUDGET FROM STAMFORD.

Stamford, Dec. 13.—A late issue of the Star published the report that the Oneonta News had been sold to New York parties under a slight correction. Owing to the similarity of names it was understood by the correspondent that it was the property of C. J. Hamilton whose place is named The Elmwood. The Oneonta News was sold by him to the purchasers.

Men's Club Begins Meetings.
The first meeting of the Men's club of the Presbyterian church will hold on Friday night, when they will be entertained by a lecture on "New York City Water Supply" by George Honness, one of the principal engineers of the immense project for the city of New York. Mr. Honness has a large number of colored slides illustrating the work and its progress. The event is looked forward to with much interest. There will be five numbers on the program extending to April, 1922. A social hour will be held in the parlors of the church following the lecture.

Mrs. C. L. Murdock Seriously Ill.
Following a cerebral hemorrhage which caused a paralysis of one side, Mrs. C. L. Murdock lies in critical condition at her home on Roosevelt avenue, with little prospect of ultimate recovery. There has been a slight improvement for a couple of days but at last account she was unable to take any nourishment and lies in nearly a coma.

Monday Bridge Club Meets.
The regular meeting of the Monday Afternoon Bridge club was held at the home of Mrs. C. L. Murdock on Monday afternoon. A series of games were played. Appetizing refreshments were served.

Anti-Saloon League Address.
The pulpit of the Presbyterian church was occupied on Sunday morning by Rev. L. P. Tucker, the representative of the Anti-Saloon league. His address was listened to by a good sized audience. Mr. Tucker was formerly located in Stamford as pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church and made many strong friends during his stay. He also occupied the pulpit of the Methodist Episcopal church in the evening and delivered a lecture on the same topic.

The Madison Greatly Enlarged.
The work on the enlargement of the Madison owned and conducted by A. W. Williams is progressing rapidly. Radical changes have been made in the old part of the house as well as the addition which has been constructed. When complete there will be hot and cold water in every room and there will also be a large number of rooms with private baths and toilets.

Steam Heat will be Installed.
That the house will be installed so that the house will be comfortable for the late fall and winter months. Many new innovations are to be made in the working part of the house, and when completed it will rank as one of the best of the smaller hotels in the place. The Madison has always done a profitable business and has had an enviable reputation. Its location in the center of the village on a high location makes it an ideal summer home for those who desire to be a little remote from the village and there is no doubt that the season of 1922 will bring to the house a capacity business.

The Vanduykes Entertains.
A most enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Avery C. Vanduyke on Friday, when in response to their invitation about twenty-four of their friends partook of their hospitality.

Bridge and Five Hundred occupied the evening.
At the conclusion of the games most delicious refreshments were served. The favors for the evening were cut roses and carnations. The party dispersed at a late hour, all greatly pleased with the enjoyment of the evening.

DELHI AND THEREABOUTS.
Bloomville Grange Election—Other Matters of Local Interest.

Delhi, Dec. 13.—The Bloomville Grange checked off on Saturday evening as follows: Master, R. A. Hillis; steward, James Davidson; assistant steward, Stephen Hillis; treasurer, John Dayton; secretary, Mrs. A. M. Lyon; chaplain, T. L. St. John; Ceres Miss Ella Lamb; Pomona, Mrs. Will Rose; Flora Mrs. J. N. Dayton; gate keeper, Wendell Marun; lady assistant steward, Margaret Hillis; and the evening was closed by the singing of the hymns.

On Columbia Citizen.
Jack Vandercook, the grandson of Mrs. Frances Vandercook who spends her summers at Delhi, has taken a position on the Columbia Citizen, Columbus, Ohio; a United Press association paper. His father, the late Jack Vandercook, was the first president of the association, holding the position at the time of his death.

Parish League Clears $200.
The Parish league of St. John's church expects to clear over $200 from their bazaar and bake sale held Friday and Saturday evenings. The booths were handsome and well patronized. The mystery tree was especially attractive to the children.

Delhi Day By Day.
"The Spaulds," a long established journal of the drugists trade, contains in a recent issue an article by Frank Farrington of this village on the advertising of E. L. Guild, a Wall-ton druggist. Some of Mr. Guild's advertisements are reproduced with favorable comments.—John Young, who recently sold his farm on Platt-ner brook, has purchased a smaller place at the foot of the brook, formerly occupied by Robert Boies.—Mrs. Helen M. Palmer of Mordele, a former Delhi resident, was in town Monday. She contemplates going to the home of her son near Tampa, Fla., a little later in the season, to pass the remainder of the winter, making the trip in company with Mr. and Mrs. Milo Graham of Oneonta.—Delhi stores are donning their holiday attire and present a very attractive appearance. With the varied assortment of gifts they display, it would seem that local customers would not have to go out of town to supply their needs.

TREADWELL MEETINGS.
Treadwell, Dec. 13.—Communion services will be observed Sunday Dec. 18. Several are to unite with the church on probation and some by letter.

The Ladies Aid will hold their annual fair and supper Friday, Dec. 16.
Ladies are asked to contribute useful and fancy articles for the sale.

At the recent quarterly conference there was a unanimous vote in favor of Rev. T. R. Edwards return to this charge another year.

At the annual business meeting of the Epworth league the following officers were elected for the year: President, Harry Bartow; first vice president, Mrs. Harry Bartow; second vice president, Mrs. George McLean; third vice president, Homer Benedict; fourth vice president, Mrs. Alton Anderson; secretary, Miss Mildred Murphy; treasurer, Wendell Georgia, Chorister, Miss Nellie Brown; Pianist, Miss Helen Van Tassie.

Communion services will be observed Sunday at which time it is expected that several will unite with the church.

The Ladies Aid will hold their annual church fair and chicken pie supper this Friday evening. Useful and fancy articles will be on sale throughout the afternoon and evening.

Smaller Treadwell Items.
Mrs. Alex McLean spent last week at Mrs. Davidson's, Mondak, Del. The W. C. T. U. met with Mrs. Hanford DuMont Tuesday afternoon. An official board meeting is to be held at the parsonage this Tuesday evening.—The Sunday School is rehearsing for a pageant "Bringing Christmas to Every Child," to be given Christmas eve in connection with the Christmas tree exercises. The Boy Scouts will meet this Saturday evening.—Joe Bors, of Lake Delaware was

LOOK AT THIS TIRE

We saved from the scrap heap and looking only fit for junk. After we have vulcanized and put it in shape again it is good for another two thousand miles. If it is still good "live rubber" we can do wonders with an old tire by our perfect method of vulcanizing.

SUPT. WINSOR REPORTS

ASKS $16,500 FOR CONTINUANCE OF WORK AT MT. VISION TUBERCULOSIS HOSPITAL

Head of Tuberculosis Hospital Impresses on Supervisors Importance of Work Being Accomplished Toward Eradication of Disease; Hon. Charles Smith Praises Institution's Efforts—County Sealer of Weights and Measures Submits Report.

Cooperstown, Dec. 13.—Dr. Frank L. Winsor of Laurens, Superintendent of the Otsego County Tuberculosis Sanatorium at Mt. Vision, appeared before the board of supervisors this morning and rendered an exhaustive, though interesting statement of the work done at the institution during the past year. Following the reading of his report, Dr. Winsor asked for an appropriation of $16,500 to take care of the continuance of this work until Nov. 1, 1922. This is $1,500 more than the amount asked for last year.

Dr. Winsor said that it was a common thing for people to think that a sanatorium was a bad place for mild cases of tuberculosis to be sent owing to the fact that they might contract the more serious form from other patients. To prove the error of this belief he described experiments made upon guinea pigs by injecting into them fluid containing washings from the hands upon which tubercular patients had coughed or articles touched by patients having been coughed upon. The only way, he said, in which much danger could arise was taking into the system directly particles of the sputum. He explained that the majority of people either have or have had tuberculosis in some form or another. These, generally active in youth, heal over and may never increase. If the body is prepared early in life to withstand tubercular germs there is not much danger of the disease securing a foothold in later years.

Mr. Bookes requested that, in next year's report, there be shown, as nearly as possible, the number of cases in the sanatorium that might have resulted from bovine tuberculosis. He explained his request on the grounds that, just at present, the board has before it the problem of this form of tuberculosis and its effect on humans. Dr. Winsor stated, in answering Mr. Bookes' request, that a minority of pulmonary cases resulting in death had been contracted from bovine sources. The larger part of cases of bovine origin were in children and these would respond readily to treatment by the Alpine lamp, such as described in the above report, which would melt away the affections. When asked what he thought of the probability of completely eradicating bovine tuberculosis, he characterized the hopes of the workers in this field as an Utopian dream.

He told of the wonderful results brought about in a number of cases, by the Alpine lamp, which is a perfected lighting apparatus that produces the effect of intense sunlight, seldom obtainable from heavenly sources, and which seems to melt away the enlarged diseased sections and leave them purified.

He closed by saying that, although the capacity of the sanatorium was already taxed to a great extent, he was not yet ready to take up matters of enlarging the institution. Hon. Charles Smith of Oneonta, president of the board of managers, supplemented the remarks of Dr. Winsor by saying that the affairs of the institution have been administered on a strictly business-like basis and that the institution points with pride to the economical manner in which it has carried on its work thus far. He also inserted a word of praise for the work done by Miss Hazel Foster as county agent for the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, and asked that the appropriation of $1,500, made by the board for her use, be raised to $1,800. The agent's salary alone is $1,400, and the extra amount together with expenses must be raised from contributions. He told the board that, although their present generosity was deeply appreciated, he thought that they would be moved by virtue of Miss Foster's admirable work to appropriate at least enough to raise the present appropriation to $1,800.

Mr. Haight moved that the report of Dr. Winsor be accepted and entered in the official minutes. This motion was seconded by Mr. Hadsell.

E. F. Johnson of Worcester, county sealer of weights and measures, also submitted his report for the past year. It showed that he had traveled 2,122 miles in making his inspection and had made 350 such inspections. The largest percentage of inaccuracy was found to exist in platform scales, most of these being installed in temporary milk plants. One-fourth of all the gasoline pumps were found to be inaccurate. This he attributed to the pumps themselves, and not to any wilful attempt of the owners to give short measure. He said that only one case where the offense appeared intentional had come to his attention.

As the salary paid him does not permit him to give his entire time to the work, he said that he could not follow up all of these cases as closely as to insure perpetual accuracy of measure. When he finds a measure to be inaccurate, he either destroys it or orders it repaired if possible. He then places a condemnation tag on the measure until it has been adjusted properly.

He mentioned counter scales as being most accurate of all, but said that he knew of a few cases where they gave over weight.

Out of 54 store packages inspected, the weight of 31 were found to be correct and 23 incorrect. In testing prints of butter, 62 packs were found to be correct in weight and 32 incorrect.

Mr. Hadsell moved that the report be accepted and E. J. Smith seconded the motion.

Mr. Johnson was then offered the courtesy of the floor and answered many queries put to him by members of the board concerning his work.

Petitions were read at the opening of the meeting from the town of Worcester for the refund of erroneous taxes paid by Olmstead & Sturges to the amount of $30.07, and by Fred Olmstead to the amount of $3.37.

PLAN TO KEEP ROADS OPEN.

Oneonta Auto Club Solicits Renewal of Memberships Now.

Efforts are to be made again this winter to keep the trunk lines of state highways in this section open during the winter months. Of course there may result such heavy snows as during the winter of two years ago which would render it almost impossible, but with only the average amount of snow it is hoped to be able to keep these highways open for motor car traffic throughout the winter.

Motor clubs in this section are all displaying interest in the subject and are disposed to do all within their power to this end. At Binghamton snow plows are to be purchased for a number of the big and powerful trucks, with the intention of making a determined effort to keep the road over Belden hill open. Other clubs are also at work.

In Oneonta funds will be needed to prosecute this work and renewal membership cards are being sent out to motorists soliciting their continued support. Those who renew now for 1922 will be enrolled for the full year and carried until Dec. 31, next. It is hoped that as many motorists as possible will forward the amount of the annual dues to the secretary before Jan. 1, irrespective of the date during 1920 that they paid their annual dues.

It is not improbable that if the highway to Stamford is kept open that an additional snow plow will be required. If this is purchased, it will require considerable outlay and funds will be required to care for this appropriation. The motto of every motorist should be, "I want to do my part and I will do it now."

Harry Munn spent the week-end at his home from a business trip.

MRS. JULIA BOWMAN.

Aged Resident of Sidney Center Expires Last Thursday.

Sidney Center, Dec. 13.—Mrs. Julia Bowman died Thursday evening, Dec. 8, in the Marshall hospital in Oneonta, her condition being far more serious than her physicians expected when she was taken to the hospital for an operation. Her funeral was held from her home in this village Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, her pastor Rev. G. D. Morry officiating, assisted by Rev. S. E. Carr of Walton both of whom spoke in eloquent terms of the beautiful life and character of the deceased. Interment was given in Highland cemetery.

Mrs. Bowman was born in Masonville, March 22, 1847. On Dec. 16, 1867 she was united in marriage to Gardner Bowman, and for the past 43 years their home has been in this village. Mr. Bowman's death occurred about three years ago. Early in life Mrs. Bowman united with the Baptist church and her splendid executive ability made her a leader in church work. At the time of her death she was president of the Woman's Missionary society and teacher of the Progressive Bible class in the Sunday school. She was a woman of lovable personal character, a devoted mother, and in her daily life she exemplified the teachings of the Master whom she served. Surviving her are six children, E. S. Bowman and Frederick N. Bowman of Buffalo, Mrs. F. W. Stanton of Pittsburgh, Pa., Miss Marian Bowman, who is teaching in Yonkers, Burton B. and Frances M. Bowman of this village, one brother, Rev. T. G. Brownson D. D., Professor of Bible History in Benedict college, Columbia, S. C., and a sister, Mrs. H. W. Dewey of Sidney Center, also eight grandchildren.

At Norwich Hospital.

Miss Eva Sutton was operated on for appendicitis in the Norwich City hospital last Friday, and is reported as making satisfactory progress toward recovery. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Sutton, accompanied her and also visited her in the hospital last Sunday.

Birthday Party.

A family party was held last Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Dibble in honor of Mrs. Dibble's birthday.

Attending Dairyman's League.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Sagendorf left Monday for New York where they are spending a few days. Mr. Sagendorf is the delegate from this branch of the Dairyman's league to the annual stockholders meeting in Jersey City.

Mrs. Mary Wheat Buys House.
Mrs. Mary Wheat has purchased the residence on Main street, which she has occupied for several years of Mrs. Mary Haight of Valhalla.

HOBART BREVITIES.

COMPLIMENTARY DINNER

TENDERED JUSTICE A. L. KELLOGG AT ITHACA TUESDAY NOON.

By Tompkins County Bar Association at Clinton House—Suggestion That New Court House Be Erected as Memorial to Soldier Dead Recently Approved.

Ithaca, Dec. 13.—At noon today the Tompkins County Bar Association tendered a complimentary dinner to Justice A. L. Kellogg of the supreme court, who is presiding at a term of court in this city, the dinner being at the Clinton house and being attended by all the prominent members of the bar of Ithaca and the county and a few visitors from adjoining counties. The dining room was prettily decorated for the occasion and was well filled with attorneys. After a sumptuous dinner William Hazlett Smith, president of the bar association, addressed the gathering and in the course of his remarks referred in a very complimentary manner to the work of Justice Kellogg on the bench and of the high regard in which he is held not only by the bar of the county but by the people of the county and especially by those who have had business in the courts over which he has presided. Mr. Smith commended Justice Kellogg for his fairness, for the consideration shown the younger attorneys and for his evident desire to administer justice without fear or favor and always with common sense as the foundation of all decisions. His remarks were heartily applauded and evidently voiced the opinions of the bar of the county. Justice Kellogg in responding expressed his pleasure at this mark of esteem, declaring it to be exceedingly gratifying to him to learn that his course as a trial judge and his conduct in presiding over the trial of cases had met with the approval of the public generally.

Later in his response Justice Kellogg referred to the discussions he had relative to the need of a new court house in the city of Ithaca and said that it had occurred to him that the people of the county might unite and erect a new court house as a memorial to the soldiers and sailors of the World war. This suggestion seemed to meet with the universal approval of all present and was heartily cheered.
